Failure to appear as scheduled for fingerprinting and biometrics collection during the 14-Day period may delay eligibility for work authorization and/or result in an asylum officer dismissing your asylum application, and/or referring it to an Immigration Judge.

When you appear for fingerprinting and biometrics collection, you MUST BRING THIS LETTER, or you will not be able to have your fingerprints taken. This may cause a delay in the processing of your application and your eligibility for work authorization. Even if you are scheduled at the same time as your family members, each individual must bring his or her own notice. Note: Asylum applicants are required to present identification documents in order to have biometrics collected; however, if you have photo identification you should bring it with you. Biometrics processing may take longer without identification.

Please note that ASC staff will not be able to answer questions about the status of your application. If you have questions, please contact the asylum office with jurisdiction over your application. Contact information can be found at the "Find a USCIS Office" link on the USCIS website at www.uscis.gov.

Pursuant to Section 265 of the Immigration and Nationality Act, you are required to notify the USCIS, in writing, of any address changes, within 5 days of such change, on Form EOIR-33. Include your name, Court having jurisdiction over your case of any change of address. The USCIS will use the last address you provided for all signature, address, and USCIS A# on any written notice of change of address. Failure to provide your current correspondence, and you are responsible for the contents of all USCIS correspondence sent to that address. Address as required may result in dismissal or referral of your asylum application, institution of removal proceedings, the entry of a removal order in your absence if you fail to appear for a hearing before an immigration judge, and removal from the United States.

NOTE: USCIS will use your fingerprints to check the criminal history records of the FBI. You may obtain a copy of your own FBI identification record using the procedures outlined within Title 28 C.F.R., Section 16.32. The procedures to change, correct, or update your FBI identification record are outlined within Title 28 C.F.R., Section 16.34.

Rescheduling Form: Please reschedule my appointment. Upon receipt of your request, you will receive a new appointment notice. Make a copy of this notice for your records, then mail the original with your request to: BPU, Alexandria ASC, 8850 Richmond Highway, Suite 100, Alexandria, VA 22309-1586.
